WHEREAS, Representing more than 500,000 constituents in Bexar County, Senator Krier's dedication to excellence and effective sponsorship and support of legislation affecting the citizens of her community and across the state have been especially beneficial to many Texans; and

WHEREAS, These accomplishments have been attained in spite of once being denied admittance to the House Chamber to hear the Governor address a Joint Session of the 69th Legislature; and

WHEREAS, This updated House practice enabled House Sergeants to identify the Senator from Bexar successfully during the 70th Session of the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, As a member of the Texas Senate, Cyndi Taylor Krier has also delved toward higher accomplishments in the 70th Regular Session of the Legislature; Senator Krier has established a working relationship with many members, most notably Senator Carl Parker and also with Senator John Montford, in spite of his grievous oversight in not issuing an invitation to Senator Krier and to the other women Senators to his annual West Texas trail ride; and
